

The resistors and transistor can be located on a small piece of perf board on the MIMA controller end of the ribbon, so the wiring on the actual display can be as simple as possible. the output of the wire order to be adjusted so the leds and wires follow the same sequence.

